CLAIMS TO BE.

And its claims are fully authenticated by the HIGHEST MEDICAL AND SCIENTIFIC AUTHORITY IN ENGLAND AND AMERICA, and a great multitude who have tested its merits. Its use is not confined to INVALIDS and CONVALESCENTS but everybody who wishes to develop a STRONG, ROBUST CONSTITUTION should take it regularly, and prove its WONDERFUL STRENGTHENING AND INVIGORATING POWER.

TEMPERANCE ORGANIZATION.

At the public meeting on Wednesday evening last in the Methodist church, for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Royal Templars of Temperance, there was a good attendance. The meeting was called to order by Rev. J. H. Howard, who proposed Mr. McTaggart as chairman, which proposal was accepted. The chairman opened the meeting by announcing the hymn "Rescue the Perishing," which was sung with enthusiasm; Mrs. Dr. Porter presiding at the piano. After a few remarks from the chairman, who spoke of the necessity and advantage of some organization to combat the influence of the drink traffic and to aid in the maintenance of all good laws pointing in that direction, the Rev. A. Campbell expressed himself in favor of any movement that would rid the land of that accursed thing, drink. The advantage of mutual help and sympathy was dwelt upon, and the hope of the speaker was that soon we would have not only a land of prohibition in name but in fact. The hymn "To the Work" was then sang, after which the Rev. Mr. Howard was asked to give some explanations with reference to the workings of the Order. The rev. gentleman stated that the object of the Order was of a two-fold character, viz., as a prohibitory organization and as an insurance and beneficiary movement, either of which was worthy of support and sympathy. This ended the public part of the programme, and after the benediction had been pronounced by the Rev. A. Campbell, those who came to learn and see something of the object of the Order retired, and some fifteen who had signed the application for a charter remained. District Organizer D. C. McLellan then proceeded to the initiation of the charter members and to the election of officers, when the following were elected:—Rev. John H. Howard, Select Councillor; Mrs. A. Campbell, Vice Councillor; D. C. McLellan, Past Councillor; Rev. A. Campbell, Chaplain; W. J. Carter, Rec. Sec.; Miss Nichol, Assistant Sec.; J. McTaggart, Financial Sec.; Mrs. D. C. McLellan, Treasurer; A. L. Robertson, Herald; Mrs. Shannon, Deputy Herald; D. Williamson, Guard; W. Lovell, Sentinel. Bros. S. McLeod, W. J. Carter and D. C. McLellan were appointed Trustees. The Council will meet on Wednesday evenings at eight o'clock, for the present in the Methodist church.

BATOCHÉ.

Yesterday, the 24th inst., being the Feast of St. Joseph, was well observed by the metis, who gathered in large numbers at Batoche, there being delegates from nearly all the places around. The weather was splendid throughout, the day being cloudy, cool and without any rain, so the sportsmen had the best weather they could wish for. The running races were most interesting. Mr. Garipy's horse won the first prize. Then an Indian dance was witnessed, and the whole affair ended by two splendid speeches from Messrs. L. Schmidt and C. Nolin, the former receiving frequent and repeated cheers.

The work on the Government telegraph line is progressing very favorably. The construction party composed of fourteen men, working under foreman McKay, is now between Batoche and Duck Lake, and they expect to reach St. Laurent about the beginning of next week.

Save your money by buying your light Merino and Balbriggan underclothing at Walters & Baker's.

Messrs. Russell & Davis offer a $5 prize for fat cattle at the coming Carrot River Agricultural Society's show.

An immense gathering of the Mounted Police will take place at Saskatoon about the first week in September. All the available men from Prince Albert, Regina and Battleford will be there, under Col. Herchmar. As Saskatoon is under Supt. Perry's command, the boys of F Division intend giving their comrades a good time. All kinds of sports will be competed. We know the Prince Albert troop can hold their own and we hope they will give a good account of themselves.

We have a few Linen Coats and Vests left and will close them out cheap. Walters and Baker.

CHIT-CHAT LOCALS.

Gathered by our Reporters.

A choice lot of Hams, Spiced Roll and Smoked Bacon just received at Walters and Bakers.

J. F. Betts, M.L.A., presents a valuable table cover as a special prize for butter to the Carrot River Agricultural Society's next meeting.

The Hon. L. Clarke has kindly donated $15 in cash, to be distributed in prizes at the Carrot River Agricultural Society's next meeting.

Don't forget the general meeting of the Lorne Agricultural Society on Monday afternoon. Business of great importance will be brought up.

Mr. LaFond, druggist, has purchased the property on River street occupied by him as a drug store. He intends enlarging and fitting up the premises in good style.

D. H. Macdowall, Esq., M.P., has presented the Carrot River Agricultural Society with a handsome and valuable silver cup. The Society will give it as a prize for the best herd of cattle.

The land were out a few evenings ago and serenaded our member elect for the Legislative Assembly. They played some nice music and were heartily received by Mr. Betts and the ladies.

Some of the ladies of the town are endeavoring to get up a "Ladies Match" in the Saskatchewan Rifle Association meeting next month. We hope they will succeed and get not only one prize bet several.

Montserrat and Jamaica Lime Fruit Juice in large or small quantities at T. E. Jackson's.

The Bank of England was chartered 194 years ago to-day, and Robespierre was beheaded the following day. The Spanish Armada was defeated 300 years ago, and William III, of Orange, landed in England 200 years ago.

Corp. Gauvin, of the N.W. M. Police, whose time is up in the force, is leaving for his home in Quebec to-day. The corporal has been here since the rebellion having come up at that time with Col. Irvine. After he has visited his friends Mr. Gauvin intends to return to Prince Albert.

Sergt. Parker has just received the prize given by Mr. Sheriff Hughes which he won at the police annual shooting competition. The prize is a very handsome water service consisting of three pieces and the sergeant is greatly tickled over winning and receiving such a magnificent trophy.

A new White Sewing Machine for sale. This is the best machine made and will be sold cheap. Walters & Baker.

Quite a number of people witnessed the eclipse of the moon on Sunday evening last. The Indians also saw it, and as is their superstition and custom a constant fusillade was kept up for over an hour "trying to waken up the moon" as it was going to sleep. This is the last eclipse that will be seen here this year although the sun will be eclipsed on the 7th of August.

A meeting of the council of the S.R.A. will be held in Johnson's store on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is particularly requested as business of great importance pertaining to the meeting must be settled. Practice is now going on and good shooting made. Shooting for the spoon is creating quite a bit of sport. We would like to see at least twenty members at each practice.

A FAVORABLE VERDICT.

Mr. J. S. George, Tottenham, Ont., writes:—I have been troubled with catarrh for five years. Seeing Nasal Balm advertised I procured a bottle, and although I have only used part of it, I do not hesitate to pronounce it the best remedy in the world for catarrh. It is easy and pleasant to use, instant in giving relief, stops the droppings from the head into the throat and removes all symptoms of catarrh and cold in the head. In fact if the directions are faithfully followed nothing but a sure cure will result.

See our white and grey cottons now selling for ten cents per yard. They beat all others. Walters and Bakers.

BATOCHÉ AFFAIRS.

The correspondence which from time to time appears in the eastern papers, and which purports to be between Dumont and the Metis at Batoche is apt to be misleading and calculated to raise a wrong impression in the minds of those unacquainted with the true state of affairs. That Dumont has a following among the French half breeds it were useless to deny, but the number of his followers is small. The great majority do not recognize him either as their leader nor as the brave man he would wish himself to be considered, nor have they ever elected him their chief. In fact most of them look upon him in his true light as an idle coward. But it is also evident that his words have a great deal of weight with a certain faction, and that faction—led by a man who is a born mischief maker—would hail with delight the return of the rebel chief, and would to-morrow we believe take up arms in rebellion on a very slight pretext. The letters which are sent from Batoche to Dumont do not voice the sentiments of the large majority of the metis; they know nothing about them. It is believed that the author of those letters is the man who places himself at the head of the rebellious element; and that he alone is responsible. That individual is well known, and being too indolent to earn an honest livelihood, is preying on the evil passions and ignorance of a few half breeds. If report be true, he is now seeking to create a discord amongst them on account of the recent election at Batoche. We do not intend to champion the cause of either of the candidates, nor of the returning officer. If wrong has been done, those aggrieved can have a remedy in the courts. We believe that the returning officer acted throughout the election with the greatest impartiality, and was perfectly justified in making the return he did. The only error he appears to have made was in appointing men as deputy returning officers who, as the result shows, were not qualified; but he appointed the most intelligent men he could get in the district, and no doubt the metis would have objected very strongly had he taken his officers from outside. There were only 282 votes polled in the Batoche election, of which 189 only were French, and every boy of that nationality over eighteen years of age voted; there were 119 English votes recorded; 26 of the French voted for Mitchell and the other 163 for Fisher. The majority of those who voted for Fisher are perfectly satisfied with the result, and we see no reason why the vapourings of a crank and a few followers should be taken any notice of as long as they do not institute the proper legal proceedings to test the validity of the return made by the returning officer.

THE CROPS.

Crop reports from all over the district are most encouraging. Grain of all kinds is fully headed, and in some localities barley is ripening and will be ready to cut in a week, while wheat will only be a few days later. If the present hot weather continues till the middle of August, nearly all the wheat in the district will be ready to cut. The crop all through is as good as last year, and the yield will be above the average. Some damage has been done by gophers in the vicinity of Fish Creek, but it is not very extensive.

THE FERRY.

When it was proposed last spring to place a ferry on the river opposite the town, the Council could not allow any private party to secure the privilege, but must get it for the municipality. The town now has the exclusive right to place and operate a ferry on the river. Why does not the Council see that it is put in operation at once, or else if they do not intend to do anything allow some private party the right to do so? At this particular season of the year a ferry has become an absolute necessity, and if the Town Council had not interfered it is safe to say that there would have been a good one in operation before this. We hope to see some immediate action taken in the matter.

EVERY NIGHT I SCRATCHED

Until the skin was raw. Body covered with scales like spots of mortar. Cured by CUTICURA Remedies.
I am going to tell you of the extraordinary change your CUTICURA REMEDIES performed on me. About the 1st of April I noticed some red pimples coming out all over my body, but thought nothing of it until some time later on, when I began to feel like spots of mortar spotted on, and while came off in layers, accompanied with itching. I went scratch every night until it was raw, then the next night the scales being formed meanwhile, were scraped off again. In vain did I consult all the doctors in the country, but without aid. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper about your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and purchased them from my drug store, and obtained almost immediate relief. I began to notice that the scaly eruptions gradually dropped off and disappeared one by one, and I have been fully cured. I had the disease three months before I began taking the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and in four or five weeks was entirely cured. My disease was eczema, or scurf. I recommended the CUTICURA REMEDIES to all in my vicinity, and I know of a great many who have taken them, and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babies with scaly eruptions on their heads and bodies. I can not express in words the thanks to you for what the CUTICURA REMEDIES have been to me. My body was covered with scales, and was an awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is as nice and clear as a baby's.

GRAND BANQUET.

Given to D. H. Macdowell, Esq., M.P.,
by the Electors of the Prince Albert District.

The banquet given to D. H. Macdowell, Esq., M.P., under the auspices of the Lib. Conservative Association of Prince Albert at the Queen's Hotel on the 19th inst. was a greater success than could have been expected; although it was given by the Conservative party it was open to all and quite a number of prominent Liberals availed themselves of the opportunity to assist in doing honor to the member for Saskatchewan. Owing to the limited accommodation it was intended to limit the number of tickets to fifty, but room was found for some more and a great many could not obtain admittance. The gathering was a thoroughly representative one, and the dinner was without exception the best ever given in this district. The P. A. C. Band kindly volunteered their services for the occasion and played a number of select airs both before and during the banquet. At 8.30 all were seated at the tables. Dr. Bain, president of the L. C. Association, presided and Capt. Craig and J. F. Betts, M.L.A., occupied the first and second vice-chairs respectively. On the right of the chairman was the guest of the evening and Col. Sprout and on his left sat Mr. Jas. Macarthur and Wm. Plaxton, Esq., M.L.A. Oh the wall over the president's chair was a life-size portrait of Sir John Macdonald and the room was beautifully decorated with flags and drapery.

Among those present were: Dr. Bain, Messrs. Plaxton and Betts, M.L.A., and Jas. Macarthur, Col. Sprout, Capt. Craig and McKay, Messrs. McTaggart, J. M. Coombs, Head, S. Brewster, Mair, McGregor, W.R. Gunn, Sinclair, McKay, LaFonde, Clark, Baker, James McKay, McRae, Northgraves, Loudon, Knowles, Macauley, A. R. Burns, R. J. Pritchard, H. E. Ross, R. B. Way, H. McDougall, A. B. Sprout, Hartley Gisborne, T. N. Campbell, Alex. Campbell, T. J. Agnew, J. McIntosh, G. C. McLeod, G. F. Mills, Coun. J.R. McPhail, R. H. Bratnober, J. F. A. Stull, S. J. Donaldson, E. Rankin, J.A. Macdonald, C. Adams, Jno. Dallas, R. C. Wignmore, W. Tait, W. C. McKay, W. Newett, R.A. McKenzie, R. Ouellet, C. R. Stovel, A. E. McKay, J. Lestock Reid, D.L.S., J.D. Maveety, G. S. Davidson and others.

The dinner was prepared and served by Mr. Oram in his usual first class style; the Bill of Fare, which we give below, speaks for itself.

After the cloth had been removed, Dr. Bain, from the chair, proposed the usual toasts of "The Queen" and the "Prince and Princess of Wales and the Royal Family," which were right loyally honored. In proposing the health of "The Governor-General of Canada and the Lieut. Governor of the Northwest Territories," the chairman in a neat and very appropriate speech referred to the changes that had recently taken place in the incumbents of those offices. He referred to the high qualifications possessed by Lord Stanley for the position of Gov. General and to Mr. Royal's fitness for the position he now occupies, his long service rendered to the Province of Manitoba and his connection with the Northwest. The chairman coupled the name of Mr. R. Ouellet with the toast which was enthusiastically received.

Mr. Ouellet, in a very neat and appropriate speech, paid a high compliment to the late Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Dewdney, and concluded his remarks by expressing his belief that the present Lieut. Governor, at the expiration of his term, would be as much appreciated and leave as good a record as his predecessor.

The "Army, Navy and Volunteers," was responded to by Col. Sprout, Capt. Craig and Paymaster Reid. The colonel spoke very highly of the efficiency of the Canadian militia; he was followed by Capt. Craig, who in a short and humorous speech, referred to his brief but glorious connection with the militia. Capt. Reid, of the Midland Battalion, was next called upon and gave a humorous account of a campaign he took part in with his friend Capt. Craig; the enemy proved too strong for them and he, the speaker, made a masterly retreat leaving the gallant captain in the hands of the foe.

In rising to propose the toast of the evening, "Our Guest," Dr. Bain spoke of the confidence the electors had in Mr. Macdowell; he had now served them two sessions in parliament and had given the greatest satisfaction; he, the speaker, was glad to see a number of prominent Liberals present to-night and felt sure that Mr. Macdowell was equally pleased. He referred to the election and the friendly spirit in which it had been carried on and the friendly feelings which at present existed towards our member. He also spoke of the visit of the delegates to Ottawa; they had been well received and got every possible assistance in endeavoring to attain the objects of their mission from Mr. Macdowell and they could all testify to the strenuous efforts made by him in the interests of the district. He was pleased to see electors present from Battleford and would assure them that Mr. Macdowell was working hard for that part of his district; there was too much expected of a member and people had no idea of the difficulties of getting anything done at Ottawa, especially by Northwest members. Dr. Bain referred at some length to Mr. Macdowell's standing at Ottawa, his influence with the Government and other M.P.s. and on Northwest legislation and his close and faithful attention to his duties. He asked all present to drink to the health of "Our Guest." The toast was received with the greatest possible enthusiasm by all present. The band struck up a lively air and all stood on their chairs while for five minutes the cheers were deafening.

On rising to respond, Mr. Macdowell received another ovation and had to wait until the lung power of those present had died out. He said his natural nervousness and the warmth of the reception he had received to-night made it somewhat difficult for him to give a full expression to his feelings on this occasion. He could not find words to sufficiently express his thanks to those present for this unexpected and magnificent banquet and for the cordiality with which he had been received on his return from Ottawa, and was particularly pleased to meet so many of his old friends, both those who had supported him as well as others who had opposed him in the election; he referred to the friendly spirit in which the election had been carried on and had no unfriendly feeling towards any of his opponents, he always had a warm regard for Mr. Laird. He then mentioned the subject of seed grain, and considered that the Government had acted very liberally in regard to that matter; he had used his influence with the Government to get them to accept bushel for bushel from the farmers, and that had been granted. The Government had also given us many other things we had asked for, among them the Court House, Police Barracks and a resident judge, all of which were a great benefit to the district and to Prince Albert in particular, which had virtually become the capital of Saskatchewan, but as some of his Battleford friends were present, he would say "a capitol town." He next dealt with Land matters; he had worked in the interests of settlers to secure easy terms of payment for pre-emptions and had been to an extent successful; he was opposed to the principal of second homesteads, for the reason that when a farmer had secured the patent for his first and went to take up a second he had to abandon his first and leave it vacant, he considered the system as opposed to the interests of the farmers and had a tendency to leave a large amount of land vacant which was injurious to the interests of towns and the prosperity of the country. He referred to the great loss the country had sustained in the death of the late Mr. White, the Northwest members had lost their best friend in the Government, and the people of the Northwest had lost one whose sympathies were always with them and one who took an active interest in their welfare and in the prosperity of the country. He (the late Minister) had done more for us than all the Northwest members put together; his death was a national loss and he (the speaker) felt the late honorable gentleman's place could not easily be filled, but hoped the appointment of Mr. Dewdney would prove to be a good one. Mr. Macdowell then dealt with the Disallowance question; he said that in Saskatchewan it had never been a very live issue. In 1887 when the question was brought before Parliament he voted with the Government because he felt that by so doing he was working in the interests of the country. Deputations had gone down at the time from Manitoba, or rather from Winnipeg, to get Disallowance done away with in Manitoba. It was evident at that time it was not a provincial movement but simply a few interested parties in Winnipeg, who were anxious to secure all the benefit they possibly could for that city; they were not supported by the Province at large nor by the Territories hence they did not succeed. He knew at that time the Government would not abandon their Disallowance policy to satisfy the greed and cupidity of a few Winnipeg wholesale houses, but at the near future the question would be dealt with by the administration and some arrangements made, whereby the whole matter would be settled, and now by waiting only one year we had the hated C. P. R. monopoly done away with not only in Manitoba but in the Territories. With regard to the future of Prince Albert, he was a strong believer in it; he came here in 1881 and was present during the first election ever held in the Territories; at a public meeting there, in a speech in Bishop & Coombs Hall he predicted that there would be three railways running into Prince Albert: the Hudson's Bay Road, the M. & N. W. R. and the S. S. V. Railway; these predictions were now on the eve of being fulfilled. Work would be commenced in a few days on the latter under the name of the Regina & Long Lake Railway and he believed that by November the shrill whistle of the locomotive will be heard in Saskatoon and in the Town of Prince Albert one year later. The M. & N. W. was also approaching our town and work had been commenced on the H. B. Road and although at present it was at a standstill there was every prospect that before a great while arrangements would be made whereby the road would be speedily built and equipped. He supported the R. & L. L. road because he saw the M. & N. W. were not in a position to build more than a few miles each year at present, while the former could be completed in two years, and what we wanted was speedy railway communication with the eastern markets. Our delegates to Ottawa on that behalf worked faithfully in the interests of Prince Albert and came away satisfied; they as well as himself had to choose between two lines of railway, the Regina & Long Lake and the Manitoba & North Western; the former had less mileage to build and would cost $2,000,000 while the latter would require $6,000,000; they worked for the R. & L. L. road and now the order in council granting a subsidy had been passed and the road would be pushed on at once and would be within ninety miles of us this year. He then referred to the great importance of a railway to Prince Albert and the Saskatchewan; previous to the building of the C.P.R. all the important points in the Territories were on the Saskatchewan, but since that road had been built we have had dull times; now however with the immediate prospects of railways an era of prosperity would come; farmers would raise good crops and would be large producers and exporters, stock raising and other industries would prosper; there would be a large immigration to the district and the country would become settled up, and with all this there would be good times at least for a number of years. With regard to railway matters his whole endeavor had been to work in the interests of the district and to carry out his pledges made at the election and he believed the people gave him credit for having done so to the best of his ability. He was particularly pleased to know that Mr. Macarthur, one of the delegates and a gentleman who had opposed his election, was satisfied with his actions at Ottawa. In referring to the N. W. Assembly Mr. Macdowell stated that he had supported the bill passed at the last session of Parliament and gave his reasons for opposing a full measure of responsible government for the Territories. The bill was practically the same as the one he had introduced; he opposed Davin's scheme because he saw that Saskatchewan would be ruled by the other districts and because the system proposed was too expensive; to manage five departments would cost $75,000 per year and our subsidy at present is only $60,000 and our revenue from permits and other resources about $10,000 so that there would be no money for public works, etc.; as it is the cost of government will be trifling, and in three years with a railway and the growth of the country, the importance of Saskatchewan will be so great that we will perhaps be entitled to a separate provincial government; in the mean time we will go on prospering and in three years will be able to bear the expense of responsible government. The N. W. Council spent large sums of money for educational purposes, and this year the amount to be spent will be $40,000. Sir John Macdonald objected to giving a fixed subsidy to the Territories at present but guaranteed sufficient funds for all purposes each year. Mr. Macdonald said that although the Manitoba & North Western Railway were not now under their amended charter obliged to build more than twenty miles each year, yet he had an assurance from Mr. Byrdges, one of the directors, that as soon as they could secure funds the road would be rushed through to the South Branch. There was also, he said, a road chartered to run from Prince Albert to connect with the H. B. Road at Grand Rapids as soon as the latter is built and that road would be our future outlet. He pointed out that Prince Albert might build a bridge over the South Branch which would serve for both roads. Mr. Macdonald then spoke of Battleford affairs; he had not neglected the interests of that part of his district; a permanent bridge was being built over the Battle river and $20,000 was to be spent this year on the Industrial School, which was to be maintained there and would receive all possible assistance from the government. In speaking of commercial union, he said it never would be adopted by Canada; he was opposed to unrestricted reciprocity, but believed that if Cleveland is rejected there will be reciprocity with United States which will have the effect of improving trade. He then spoke of the status of Canada and quoted U. S. Secretary of State Seward. He spoke of the great future in store for the Northwest, and in conclusion reiterated his desire and determination to exert his utmost energy in the interests of his constituents. After again expressing his thanks for the banquet and the honor conferred upon him, Mr. Macdonald took his seat amid loud cheering. He spoke exactly one hour and was listened to attentively throughout.

Capt. Craig, from the first vice-chair, gave the toast of "The Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories," which was replied to by Wm. Plaxton, M.L.A., and J. F. Betts, M.L.A.

Mr. Plaxton said that he could not say anything yet about the Assembly, but hoped to know more through time. He was new to the duties of such a position but would not neglect the interests of his constituents. He expressed his pleasure at being present to do honor to our worthy member for Ottawa and hear him give such a good account of our future prospects and that he had every confidence in Mr. Macdonald.

Mr. Betts followed in a short and humorous speech. In order to be seen he mounted on a chair, saying that he felt it incumbent on him to rise to the dignity of his position as a member of the Legislative Assembly. He expected that in three years he would get a banquet and would be pleased. He realized the importance of his position and would prove faithful to the trust reposed in him.

"Government Officials" was next proposed and responded to by Col. Sprout, Mr. McTaggart and Mr. Gibson, who expressed his pleasure at being present and said that Battleford was perfectly satisfied with their member.

The "Learned Professions" was responded to by Messrs. J. F. A. Stull, S. Brewster and J. Lestock Reid, D.L.S.

Mr. Betts, from the second vice-chair, proposed "The Land we Live in" and coupled the toast with the name of Mr. W. R. Guan, who responded in a short but very able speech.

"Agricultural and Commercial Interests" was responded to by Capt. McKay and Craig who each made short speeches.

"The Ladies" was well received and responded to by Messrs. T. N. Campbell and James McKay.

Mr. Macdonald then proposed the health of Dr. Bain in a very neat speech, in which he reviewed the actions of the delegates at Ottawa. The toast was warmly received and was responded to by Dr. Bain.

The chairman then proposed the health of the caterer and his amiable lady, Mr. and Mrs. Oram. Mr. Betts, on their behalf, thanked the assemblage.

The singing of the National anthem brought a most successful and gratifying entertainment to a close. Everything passed off well; there was not a hitch in any of the arrangements. Everyone went home pleased and those who did not, or rather could not, attend missed the most enjoyable evening ever spent in Prince Albert.
